

Hello and Goodbye

Hello to a new term, a new school year and all the children back at school. Hello to new parents and new teachers. I think we all welcome a return to some elements of routine and normality. Long may it last. We extend a thanks to the school for all that they are doing to keep our children safe and thanks to parents for understanding as things change and adjust.

Looking forwards, it is the first ever virtual only AGM on Friday and I hope to see many of you tune in for that. We will be saying goodbye to the co-chairs Naomi and Alison who have led the committee for the last 3 years. Here's what Mr Jones says: "Thankyou for all the fabulous work Naomi and Alison have done in the chair. I think they really made a difference and refocussed FoMPS on the children. We are in for an interesting year ahead and I look forward to working with you all for the benefit of the children."

We hope to vote in a new chairperson but we are searching for the right person to be the Luigi to their Mario, the Turk to their JD, the Robin to their Batman... Who can vice-chair the FOMPS committee this year? Get your nominations in now.

And finally, we can't wait for the FoMPS SCARECROW HUNT THIS WEEKEND!
